Press Release

Eagle Consulting Group Appoints New Accounting Software Consultant

New York, NY—January 29, 2003—Eagle Consulting Group, Inc. today announced the hiring of Hui Chu (Kei) Mou as an Accounting Software Consultant. As an Accounting Software Consultant, Kei will work with Eagle Consulting Group's client base providing implementation support, training, technical assistance, and business management consulting.

She brings with her a strong background in both the MAS 90 and Great Plains Dynamics software solutions, and a solid foundation in accounting principles. "I think my real strength is working with people," says Kei, "That's the part of the job I most enjoy." After a tenure at a Certified Public Accounting firm, Kei has worked for accounting software resellers, performing similar duties that her job at Eagle Consulting Group entails. Kei earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Computer Science from Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia.

"Kei's experience with both the MAS 90 and Great Plains Dynamics product lines make her a perfect fit for our organization," explains Debra Ellis, President of Eagle Consulting Group. "She is both intelligent and enthusiastic—I am certain our clients will benefit from her talent and experience."
