Eagle Consulting Group Appoints New Software Consultant

Press Release

New York City—March 1, 2006 – Eagle Consulting Group, Inc. today announced the hiring of Lisa Orezzaoli as a Software Consultant. As a Software Consultant, Ms. Orezzaoli will work with Eagle Consulting Group’s client base providing implementation services, training, technical assistance, and business management consulting.

Previously, Ms. Orezzaoli served as controller for a pharmaceutical software and data-base management development company. When the company merged with another business, she was responsible for implementing Sage MAS 90 and establishing new accounting policies and procedures.

Ms. Orezzaoli worked for Eagle from 1996 through 1999, and says she’s pleased to be back working for a company she holds in such high regard, “I’m looking forward to using my strengths to make a real contribution to our clients and the company.”

“We’re very pleased to have Lisa back,” said Debra Ellis, president of Eagle Consulting Group. “Her strong accounting skills and deep knowledge of Sage MAS 90 uniquely qualify her for this position. Her experience will enable her to be productive right away.”
